

Privacy Policy

Project Blue

We at Project Blue place a high priority on protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy was created in order to demonstrate our commitment to the privacy of our donors, supporters, and beneficiaries. This policy explains what type of information is collected and how this information is used.

I. Personal Information Collected

Project Blue collects email addresses, and personal contact information of police officers and/or those who nominate officers for financial support. In addition, we keep email and contact information from all donors including Jail Break Run race participants.

II. How Your Information May Be Used

We use the information we collect to contact and investigate officers in need. Additionally, we maintain a mailing list of donors to whom we send information about current events and activities. You may choose to opt out of such information at any time by sending an email to admin@project-blue.org

III. Privacy

Project Blue does not provide, sell, or rent email addresses to anyone outside of the organization. In the event that our website links to an external website, please be advised that we do not accept responsibility for or warrant in any way the privacy practices of such website.
